

Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer and
Emeritus Lecturer Status
[Supersedes PM 02-
05,10/22/02]

- I. Criteria for Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer Status
  - A. Normally, retirement from the University as a full-time, tenured or lecturer faculty member is required for the awarding of Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer Status. However, a waiver to this rule for exceptional cases may be requested by the Department Faculty and sent directly to the President for consideration.
  - B. Normally, a minimum of 10 years of service for Emeritus Tenured Faculty at the University is required. However, a waiver to this rule for exceptional cases may be requested by the Department Faculty and sent directly to the President for consideration.
  - C. Normally, non-tenure track, lecturer faculty at CSUDH shall become eligible for emeritus status upon completion of ten full time equivalent years of service at CSUDH, regardless of whether that service be full time or part time, continuous or discontinuous. However, a waiver to this rule for exceptional cases may be requested by the Department Faculty and sent directly to the President for consideration.
  - D. A Department estimation that the retiree has served honorably and well.
  - E. A favorable recommendation from the faculty of the retiree's department.
- II. Procedure for awarding Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer Status
  - A. Each department, including the department chair, will determine those faculty members who are retiring or who have recently retired.
  - B. Normally, the department will recommend emeritus status during the first month of the semester following retirement and send its recommendation directly to the President, who will respond in a timely manner.
  - C. All recommendations for Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer Status shall be sent directly to the President by the retiree's department. The Faculty Leaves and Honors Committee will act primary as a review committee for policy exceptions and, when necessary, as a recommendation initiating body

- D. The President shall decide upon emeritus status and inform the retiring Faculty member of his decision.
- E. The names of new Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer will be announced and listed in the appropriate publications.

III. Benefits and Privileges for CSUDH Retirees

- A. Membership and participation in benefits programs for retired lecturers and retired tenured faculty in accordance with applicable CSU policies and the laws of State of California.
- B. Teaching and consulting service in accordance with University policies and laws of the State of California.
- C. Access to current information regarding retirement benefits from Human Resources Management and other appropriate University offices.
- D. Invitations to participate in appropriate seminars, lectures, scholarly meetings, and ceremonies both as contributors and as attendees.
- E. Inclusion in the University Directory, with the department phone numbers, for five years after full retirement, unless declined.
- F. Library privileges.

IV. Benefits and Privileges for CSUDH Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer

- A. All of the benefits and privileges accorded retirees, plus the following:
- B. Emeritus identification card
- C. University Catalog listing
  - 1. Listing in the University Catalog with the department's faculty list under the designation "Emeritus Tenured Faculty" or "Emeritus Lecturer" for their lifetime.
  - 2. Listing in the University Catalog with an alphabetical "Emeritus Tenured Faculty" or "Emeritus Lecturer " group, with deceased members so designated by an asterisk.
- D. Campus Directory Listing
  - 1. Listing in the Campus Directory with an alphabetical Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer group under the designation "Emeritus Tenured Faculty" or "Emeritus Lecturer" for their lifetime.

2. Listing of the Emeritus Tenured Faculty and Emeritus Lecturer Office under the E's in the Campus Directory Quick Reference section.

- E. Participation in department meetings and affairs, as deemed appropriate by the department, in a non-voting, advisory capacity
- F. Service as members on graduate thesis or project committees, consistent with University policies and procedures in the Thesis and Project Guide.
- G. Appointment to advisory committees.
- H. Office space, administrative support, and University resources, as needed, for research, study and writing, subject to availability.
- I. Access to computer services, including electronic communication and information.
- J. Free use of athletic facilities, as available to regular faculty.
- K. Free receipt of University publications by mail, upon request.
- L. Free or discount fees for all campus cultural and athletic events, such as games, theater, music concerts, dance performances, as available
- M. Free lifetime campus parking pass.
- N. Access to campus rooms and facilities for meetings and reunions of Emeritus Tenured Faculty, subject to availability.

_____
President Willie J. Hagan, Ph.D.

_____
Date