

Supporting Vulnerable Customers – Ways we can help.

At Vodafone, we put supporting customers at the heart of our business. We recognise each customer as an individual and that each customer's individual needs are considered and supported.

In this document, we will describe the ways in which Vodafone can help customers in vulnerable circumstances use our services in the way that works best for them.

At Vodafone, we describe a vulnerable person as someone who may have one of the following characteristics:

- Physical or learning disability
- Physical or mental illness
- Low literacy
- Communication difficulties
- Financial difficulties
- Changes in circumstances such as bereavement, job loss, relationship breakdown or being affected by an emergency
- Digital Exclusion
- Age

We also understand that you can experience 'temporary' vulnerability due to circumstances such as bereavement, loss of income, accident or injury.

How we can help

We are focussed on delivering the best care and support that responds flexibly to the needs of our customers throughout each stage of your journey with Vodafone and have outlined below ways in which we can help.

Understanding your support needs

To ensure we can provide you with the best possible care and support when you need it, you have the option where we can add a 'flag' to your account so that we are aware of your support needs when you contact us and don't have to repeat information each time you contact us. Flags can be updated or removed at any time upon request. You can add a flag in your online account through settings or alternatively if you would prefer to speak to someone to add a flag you can call 191 and one of our team can add this for you and talk through the support we offer.

Communicate with us in a way that suits you

At Vodafone, we recognise the importance of providing customers with options to contact us in a way that suits their individual needs.

- Prefer face to face communication: You can visit our store colleagues who can talk you through our different devices and provide you with the best service and support. Find your nearest store | Vodafone
- Prefer to speak to someone on the phone: Call and speak to one of our contact centre teams by dialling 191 from your handset
- Prefer to communicate in writing: You can chat with one of our webchat colleagues by clicking here [include link to webchat]
- Our Digital Assistant Tobi: Our digital assistant Tobi can also help with most queries or information and point you to the right team if he is unable to help.

- BSL Sign Video – Sign Video enables you to speak to our customer service agents using British Sign Language (BSL). For more information on how to use this service go to Use SignVideo BSL interpreter services | Vodafone
- Relay UK - If you're deaf, hard of hearing or speech impaired, you may prefer to use Relay UK to make calls. When you use Relay UK, a BT assistant will read out your message to the person you're calling and type their reply to you. For more information visit Accessibility | Vodafone

Online Support Pages

- If you prefer to read through the support we offer in your own time, we have dedicated online pages to support vulnerable customers who may require assistance with accessibility needs, financial support or changes in circumstances / life events such as bereavement or critical illness.

Health and Accessibility Needs

We offer a number of support options for our customers with health or accessibility needs. These include;

- Specialised Communications - We provide specialised format communications in formats such as braille, large print, audio files or cream-coloured backgrounds free of charge for customers who may require their bill, contract or other forms of communication in this format.
- 195 Directory Enquires - For customers that have visual impairments or other disabilities which may make it difficult to hold or read a telephone directory, we can provide access to 195 directory enquires so that you can get information about the numbers you need without using a phone book.
- Priority Fixed line and broadband fault repair - Customers who depend on their home phone and/or broadband for medical reasons, may be eligible for our fault priority repair service. This will provide priority support if your landline or broadband develops a fault.
- Battery Back Up - We can provide battery back-up packs for vulnerable customers with Vodafone broadband who require access to monitored health devices, security devices or are landline dependent.
- Text and video relay - All of our customers with hearing or speech impairments are able to contact us using text or video relay and can use mobile, tablets or laptops to do this.
- Emergency texting - Customers with hearing or speech impairments can make use of this service, which enables them to send a text to the emergency services instead of calling.
- Specialised phones - We have a range of phones which are good for customers with dexterity issues, elderly people, people who are hard of hearing or use hearing aids, or people with limited sight. Specific details on these handsets are available on our online accessibility support pages. We also promote the GARI tool where you can compare different manufacturer handsets and suitable features dependent on your accessibility needs.
- Vodafone YouTube Channel - All Vodafone UK YouTube videos have subtitles to ensure everyone can engage with our activity. You can visit: youtube.com/user/VODAFONEUK where you can find lots of Help and Support videos

Life Events

Helping to tackle the Digital Divide

The cost of living crisis is putting more people than ever at risk of falling on the wrong side of the digital divide. It's an issue we have put at the heart of our business and we have pledged to champion the cause until it no longer exists.

Through our everyone.connected campaign, we've committed to helping four million people and businesses cross the digital divide by the end of 2025.

We're working with charity partners, such as the Trussell Trust, NSPCC and Good Things Foundation, as well as our customers and employees, to give digital access and skills to the most vulnerable people in our society.

- Great British Tech Appeal - through the donation of pre-loved devices, we'll gift them to people who need them the most. People who receive a phone through the Great British Tech appeal will also get a SIM card with unlimited calls and texts, as well as free data for six months.
- charities.connected - offering any UK registered charity working with digitally excluded people free sims with 40GB of data a month plus unlimited calls and texts for six months.
- Data Bank - Vodafone has also joined Good Things Foundation's National Databank to provide free data for the charity's network of community groups across the UK and the people they support. We have pledged 24 million gigabytes of data, enough to connect 200,000 people for six months.
