Felicitas von Kyaw

Managing Director HR & Labour Relations

Felicitas von Kyaw (born 1968) is a member of the Vodafone Germany Executive Committee and Managing Director HR & Labour Relations, since 1 January 2022. Felicitas has an impressive track record in human resources, change and transformation management, as well as in marketing and sales. She has accumulated a vast experience over the years in various roles at major corporations, consultancy firms and start-ups.

In 2019 she was appointed as VP People & Culture and Managing Director People & Labour Relations at Coca-Cola Europacific Partners Germany. Prior to that, from 2010 onwards, Felicitas held various international management positions at the energy company Vattenfall, which took her to Sweden, the Netherlands and Germany, among other places – eventually as Vice President HR for the European-wide business area Customers & Solutions. Between 2017 and 2019 she had a supervisory board mandate at Vattenfall Germany in addition to her management function. At the global consultancy Capgemini Consulting Felicitas was Head of Change Management Practice between 2005 and 2010.

Felicitas has a degree in Economics (University of Bonn), with additional systemic consulting and coaching qualifications. She is a member of the presidium at the German HR Association (BPM) since 2017.

Felicitas von Kyaw lives in Berlin and is proud aunt to 3 nephews.
